California Democracy—A Novel Position
[From the Sacramento Union.]

The proceedings of the late Democratic State Convention present a study. The Axtell wing triumphant in San Francisco, has been studiously insulted and domineered over by the old fashioned chivalry—at wholly without popularity or strength in themselves, and drawing their inspiration now as in the past, from an undying love of caste and a contempt for the "poor white trash" on whom the lead ers rely for votes. The fight on Axtell himself was fought and won for him long before the Convention met. His army was composed of two wings, the Call newspaper and the Irish. His enemies were the Examiner and that branch of the party which in 1861 supported McConnell against Conness receiving 32,751 votes out of the 63,695 Democratic votes, and 119,731 total votes cast at that election. To discard Axtell was impossible though he was a bitter pill for them to swallow, but they did the next best thing to show their disapproval of him and his wing. They hooted down his friend Black, announced as an Irishman, while Cazneau, the Secretary of the State Committee, was snubbed for advertising the Convention in the Call newspaper, the Examiner receiving compliments for publishing the same document without charge. But these insults did not shake the resolution of Axtell's friends. They had flanked Weller before the Convention, and they soon convinced his wing that their next man, Sawyer, notwithstanding his eternal sneer at "Freedmen's Bureaus, Military Courts and Government reservations for the negro," would not do for the latitude of San Francisco. He was withdrawn only after his defeat was assured.

This was a local triumph, to be sure, in favor of party reformation and the concessions somewhat harmonizing with the spirit of the age and the events of the war which Axtell had avowed in Congress. But it was not permitted to go forth to the world with the unqualified approval of the Convention. The old McConnell wing had the majority, and they were determined to use their power in a manner characteristic of their class. Of the seven resolutions, four are mere rubbish and three have a meaning, more or less occult. Two of of these three resolutions which mean something have the chivalry stamp upon them —that which relates to the policy enunciated by Congress on the 23d of July, 1861, and that which declares the "deliberate purpose of the Democratic party never to submit" to the laws made to secure negro suffrage at the South. The only resolution which has the Axtell stamp upon it is that relating to the Eight hour law, as a rule to be followed on the public works of the nation, a rule, by the way, already a law in this State, and which three Democratic State officials were the first to render nugatory by an order which pays laborers on the Capitol by the hour instead of the day, so that if they don't work ten hours they must pay for the loss of time in a curtailment of one fifth or twenty per cent of a day's wages.

The second resolution of the series, if it means anything at all, must mean that the Democratic party now condemns the leading measures taken by the government after July 23, 1861, especially including the Emancipation proclamation, and the adoption by Congress of such measures of reconstruction as look to the future security of the freedom granted by that proclamation to the slaves. This presents again what was the principal plank in the McClellan platform in 1864, then so fully argued and defeated by a majority of 18,293 voters in this State. When the proper time comes, if necessary, we shall gladly argue this point of the controversy, over again and endeavor to show the very best of reasons for every advance step that was taken by the Government against treason and its twin brother slavery, from the first proclamation for 75,000 militia to the last act in the drama the impeachment of a recreant and false-hearted President. These general arraignments of a whole country for deviations from a line of policy which experience a thousand times proved to be untenable only serve to show that the animus of the party which now makes them is the same it was when they declared against the Constitution and in favor of destroying it and the Union by rebellion. In these efforts they were happily defeated, and as the emancipation of slavery was one of the chief causes of that defeat, and as the plan of reconstruction pursued by Congress will be sure to preserve the black man's freedom forever, and forever put it out of the power of a vicious and treacherous Democracy to repeat their acts of secession and rebellion, it is not at all surprising they should now be found fighting for the virtual restoration of slavery.

In all other respects the proceedings of the Convention were such as we shall expect from a body in which the chivalry wing predominated. Every man on their electoral ticket is of that wing, and some of them the bright and shining lights of the faction. One of them was a candidate on the McConnell ticket of 1861 for Justice of the Supreme Court, another was one of their best and loudest orators in that campaign, another their "old war-horse." One of their leading State Committeemen was McConnell's Lieutenant on the Gubernatorial ticket and the Chief Priests of the Convention were nearly all of the most ultra pro-slavery sort, who glorified Jeff. Davis in 1860-61, and mourned in the deepest sorrow at every Union victory from the first to the last of the war. Democrat, or publicly heard to utter a note either against the right or the fact of secession. It is natural that the Convention which nominated such an Electoral ticket should have reserved by resolution the right to rebel against a law of their country conferring the franchise upon the blacks of the South as the only means of securing their liberty. They occupy the anomalous position of Electors without being pledged to any candidate. As yet the Democracy have indicated no choice for President. Their National Convention will not meet till the 4th of July. The present prospects of Gen. Hancock, a war Democrat are better than any other man's for that nomination; but these five California Electors will be at perfect liberty to cast their votes for Vallandigham if they see fit, and if the other State Conventions of the party follow the course of this one so will they all be at liberty to do. Vallandigham may thus become President on the strength of Hancock's popularity. We should say, from the past political record of these five nominees and from the resolutions of the Convention that nominated them, they are virtually bound not to vote for any war Democrat who adhered to the Union cause after the issuance of the emancipation proclamation. The same class of men for Electors and the same class of principles which formed the staple of the Democracy in 1861 are put before the loyal people of California for support in 1868 and whatever concessions may be made by the National Convention in July, the party here stands without pledge or promise of acquiescence and their electors, if elected, at perfect liberty to cast the vote of the State for the bitterest secessionist in the country. We ask the careful attention of the people to this state of facts and warn them in time of what they may expect if they permit such a ticket to be elected.

THE LATEST STYLE.—The S. F. Chronicle says: "The latest styles of walking suits appearing on our streets may be pronounced very 'nobby'—more so when the wearer has a big thing in knee pants. A nice young man just from New York was noticed on Montgomery street the other day. His coat tail ended where the tail of a well shaped gorilla begins, and his tight pants gave to his small legs (which terminated in pointed gaiters) the appearance of a couple of broomsticks springing out of molasses kegs. The young gal who sells boquets on the corner of Clay street viewed him with an admiring eye, remarking that he looked 'sweetly pooty.'"

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 16.

Delayed Dispatches.

OTTAWA, C. W., May 15.—A dispatch from the Imperial Government relative to the north west territory, states that for the legislation is necessary before the country can be ceded to Canada. This involves compensation to the Hudson Bay Company or their consent. Measures will be introduced in Parliament by the Colonial Government.

BOSTON, May 15.—Richard H. Dana, Jr., to-day introduced in the House a resolution solemnly deprecating all attempts to bring force to bear upon Senators in the discharge of their judicial duties by asserting local opinions and the still more ... organization and discipline of the opinion of ... political parties. It was indefinitely postponed, 101 against 39.

A similar resolution was introduced in the Senate by General Schouler which was referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

CHICAGO, May 15.—The Republican State Convention of Minnesota met at St. Paul yesterday and selected delegates to the Chicago Convention, and also Presidential Electors. The Convention declared for Grant and Wade.

A number of delegates to the Republican National Convention have already arrived and others are coming in rapidly.

The Methodist General Conference yesterday passed resolutions regarding the Impeachment of the President, and appointed an hour this forenoon for prayer and invoking Almighty God to save the Senators from error and to influence their decision according to truth and righteousness and so that it shall insure the security and prosperity of our beloved country.

Bishop ... of the English Conference was officially received yesterday and delivered a most eloquent and interesting address. The Conference voted to admit Southern delegates. The vote was more than ten to one. A large meeting of lay representatives was held last night. The speeches strongly favored the project of lay delegations and an address was prepared to the General Conference urging their prompt attention to this subject.

CHICAGO, May 15.—A dispatch from Cheyenne says Generals Sherman, Augur and Terry, and Col. Tappan, Indian Peace Commissioners, returned from Fort Laramie to-day. They report that they have concluded a treaty with the Crows, Sioux, northern Cheyennes and Arapahoes. All have agreed to keep the peace and settle on reservations.

Generals Harney and Sanborne and M. S. White Secretary of the Commission, remain at Laramie where they are expected to-day. They are arranging for the removal of a large party of Indians from Laramie to a reservation on the Missouri. About 100 Sioux who are believed to have committed the late depredations on the line of the railroad, are still on the war path. Red Cloud sent word that he and his warriors are in the mountains waiting for the evacuation of the military posts, and when abandoned they will come down to meet the Commissioners. Gen. Augur goes to Fort Bridger to meet the Snakes, and Sherman and Chapelle to New Mexico to meet the Navajoes and to Forts Rat ... and Sully to arrange for the reception and location of the Indians on the ... ...tion.

LEXINGTON, Mo., May 15.—The storm last night was the most severe known for years. The damage to bridges in this city and vicinity was large.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The Tribune's Washington dispatch says Anthony and Sprague are both doubtful and strongly claimed by the President's friends as sure to vote for acquittal.

The Times special says the impeachment managers have failed to elicit any testimony proving that corrupt means have been used to influence Senators to favor an acquittal. The story is made out of common rumor and was a trick to raise funds in New York to help the President.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Senator Conkling continues to improve in health and will probably be able to appear in the Senate to-morrow. Grimes is also in better physical condition. Howard don't show any marked signs of convalescence.

M. D. Randolph, Chief Clerk in the Treasury Department, died to-day aged 78.

In the House, Woodward offered a resolution to appoint a committee to investigate the facts relative to the Missouri delegation sending their protest to Henderson, but the Speaker held that it was not a question of privilege. Woodward desired to modify the resolution so as to make it a question of privilege. The Speaker said when privileges are assailed that body is competent to protect its own privileges. It does not belong to the House to do so. Considerable discussion ensued, when the House proceeded to its regular order of business.

The proceedings were interrupted by Woodward who asked what the gentleman meant by making grimaces and gesticulations at him in an offensive manner.

He said he intended no insult or grimace of any kind toward the gentleman.

After further conversation the matter dropped, and the House resumed consideration of the bill for the relief of Wm. McGranahan, reported last Saturday from the Judiciary Committee, which confirms his title to 19,000 acres of land in California, embracing the New Idria quicksilver mine. The bill was explained and advocated by Wilson, of Iowa, as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, who said that in the committee there was but one dissenting voice, that of Boutwell.

Boutwell stated the grounds on which he had opposed the bill in committee, and on which he thought it should be defeated in the House.

Washburne of Illinois inquired whether the title of the property was not in the United States to-day.

Wilson replied that it was.

Washburne then wanted to know what justice there was in giving this property, worth $30,000,000 or $40,000,000, to McGranahan or any other man.

Wilson said he could not answer this question in his argument.

Van Wyck opposed the bill, arguing that the claim had originated in fraud and forgery, and had been propped up by perjury.

Johnson expressed the belief that the McGranahan claim was just.

Wilson recited facts in controversy sustaining the claim. If the bill was not passed the quicksilver monopoly in California would control the product and price of quicksilver.

After further debate, Higby moved to table the bill. Negatived, 55 against 73. The bill then passed, 73 against 49.

Lawrence, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to establish the department of law, which was ordered printed and recommitted.

The House went into the Committee of the Whole and Garfield delivered an elaborately prepared speech on the financial question. The House then adjourned.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Western Union Telegraph stock, 38¼@34½.

The Universal Peace Society was addressed to-day by Lucy Stone, Cora Hatch and others. Resolutions were adopted expressive of the views of the society. Horace Greeley wrote a letter indorsing the objects of the society.

In the Equal Rights Association, officers were elected. Lucretia Mott was elected President. A lively discussion occurred between Fred Douglass and Susan B. Anthony, Lucy Stone and several other women, who denounced the Republicans because they would not adopt a women's rights platform. Fred Douglass said the Republican party was far in advance of the Democrats on this subject.

The trial of Theophilus Callicot, charged with defrauding the Government of $80,000 by a fraudulent removal of whisky from bonded warehouse, has commenced.

Chittenden, Superintendent of the Central Railroad, has tendered his resignation.

TORONTO, C. W., May 16.—A stated Council of Catholic Bishops, now in session at Quebec, have chosen Bishop Lynch, of Toronto, to be Archbishop of the Province, subject to the final decision of the Pope.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 16.—The rain on Wednesday night caused a heavy freshet. Several miles of railroad were carried away and three stone buildings were also swept away.

CHICAGO, May 16.—The Republican's special, dated Washington midnight, says: A caucus of Radical Senators has just broken up. After a full discussion it was decided to take the vote to-day. Doubtful men are fully awake, for there is no longer any question as to the final result. Thirty-six Senators have to-night pledged themselves for conviction on the second and eleventh articles. To-morrow will finish Andrew Johnson's official life. There is great rejoicing among Republicans who have congregated at the offices of the various newspapers throughout the country over the news of what the caucus has done and the sure conviction of Johnson to-morrow.

The same special says there has been startling developments to-day which show conclusively that there has been a regular conspiracy in the party by Chief Justice Chase and renegade Republican Senators to defeat impeachment and elect the former to the Presidency at the cost of breaking up the Republican party. Night before last Chief Justice Chase invited H. S. Bundy of the Sixth Congress, from Ohio, to call upon him. He stated that he had some important matters to talk about. Bundy having long shared the confidence of the Chief Justice, and he stood to his firm friend and supporter accepted the invitation. During the interview Chase told Bundy it was his intention to become a candidate for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket. Not succeeding in this, he would enter the arena as an independent candidate against Grant. Of his own success, he said there could be no doubt. Impeachment would fail, and thus ... would divide the Republican party, and statesmen like Trumbull, Fessenden, Henderson, Grimes and Fowler, would be recognized as heads of one division of the Republican party. These five he said had pledged themselves ten days ago and said they they would support him in this movement. The Chief Justice gave Bundy his views in full of the movement, speaking very confidently as to his success and prophesying the downfall of radicalism as represented by the advocates of impeachment. Bundy promptly communicated this statement to leading Radicals. The rumors of conspiracies to defeat the impeachment are afloat. About all the specials agree in the statement that a vote is determined upon to-day. The Tribune editorially says: Our midnight dispatches leave no doubt that a vote will be taken to-day. The friends of the President who have his confidence, state now precisely what ... he has taken to convince men that black is white and that he is not guilty of the offences as charged. They say the court will acquit, but Republicans who do not speak and who have made careful count, are sure the country is not to be surrendered to rebellion. Willey is believed to hold the decisive vote. He is at ... and possibly on three articles. Our friends in Washington are not over confident, but have by no means lost hope.

The Herald says there was a caucus on Friday night at Senator Pomeroy's residence, at which the Radicals decided upon a vote to-day. This decision of the caucus has made the friends of impeachment very confident. The ... Tilton ... the Radicals ... conviction is sure. ... George Wilkes is putting up more money upon the strength of the same opinion. A Senator hitherto claimed on the side of acquittal is also thought to be doubtful. Senator Fowler will surely, according to every report, vote not guilty on all the articles. I am still confident the President will get clear, but the vote will be very close.

State Taxation.

The Herald is talking profoundly about State and county finances. It says

When the Democratic State officers surrendered the State government to their Republican successors in 1862, the State was out of debt and a large [illegible] in the public treasury. During the next four years the taxes were nearly doubled and a [illegible] of $218,474.

Of course it did not suit the purpose of that paper to [illegible] the fact that this entire debt of $218,474 was caused directly by the late Democratic rebellion. Oregon was required to furnish troops, and to avoid a draft, bounties were authorized to the amount of this sum. For the payment of interest on these bonds and the redemption thereof, a tax of one and a half mills is levied. The bonds have already been redeemed to the amount of over $47,000, and there is now in the State Treasury about $15,000 more which in a few weeks will be applied to the same purpose. This [illegible] the State indebtedness to about $156,000, which amount will be speedily extinguished. Not a dollar will be outstanding in [illegible] four years from this date. The payment of these bonds is one cause of the increase of State taxation; but the principal cause is the maintenance of the State Asylum for the Insane. The cost of this establishment for the two years ending September, 1866, was $81,761 22; and we learn that for the current period of two years the cost will be [illegible]. Prior to 1862, when the Democrats controlled the State, this cost did not exist. We have before touched upon this subject and shown that the expense of [illegible] for the two years ending September, 1866, was more than $21,000 greater than the whole cost of the State government for the two years ending September, 1862. If this [illegible] satisfactorily explain the cause of the [illegible] of taxes, we refer the editor of the Herald to one of the Directors of that paper who [illegible] the management of the Asylum and who, without doubt, can inform any inquirer why it takes so much money to maintain the [illegible]. Probably no gentleman is so [illegible] as Dr. Hawthorne to say whether [illegible] expenditure of money which was not required when the Democrats [illegible] or is not the result of [illegible] to denominate "Republican [illegible]." There is no other [illegible] of the State which is materially greater [illegible] six years ago. If the Herald will go to [illegible] on the facts we have furnished, it will [illegible] be able to discover, if its editor has as much intelligence as an average [illegible], why the taxes were "nearly [illegible] four years.

[illegible] spirit of [illegible].

We [illegible] the other day that "the faction [illegible] the Democratic party has murder [illegible] and that [illegible] is the direct [illegible] of its teachings." This has been [illegible] as a "foul libel" upon the Democratic party. Here is an attempt to make us say that the whole Democratic party is composed of [illegible]. We neither said nor [illegible] anything of the kind; but meant exactly [illegible] the teachings of the faction [illegible] that party. This assertion can be [illegible] by the most conclusive proof, and no amount of denunciation or denial can [illegible] its force.

[illegible] that during the rebellion the [illegible] continually denounced Mr. Lincoln as a most wicked tyrant. [illegible] ever inflicted on a suffering people. [illegible] journals all taught that to get rid of [illegible] most [illegible] them hunted at, and thus encouraged his murder, and some of [illegible] openly called for brave hands to [illegible] an opportunity [illegible] tyrant's heart. The most [illegible] "Democratic" journal in the [illegible] the La Crosse Democrat [illegible] invited [illegible]. The only "Democ[illegible] country, invoked the [illegible] of the crime. The [illegible] result of the [illegible] of this [illegible] same class of publications, the [illegible] patronized of any published in the interest of the "Democratic" party, [illegible] to call for the [illegible] of every [illegible] opposed to them. The [illegible] not long ago said that the [illegible] should be [illegible], if every one of [illegible] was sent seething down the b[illegible] of Abraham Lincoln. Not two months ago it coolly said that, had there been a few [illegible] Booths some years ago to remove [illegible] leaders, the trouble [illegible] the country has passed would never have occurred. The "Democratic" [illegible] is now beginning the same mode of [illegible] Grant which it employed on President Lincoln. The principal [illegible] of that party has already openly declared for his assassination. The [illegible] is frequently heard among Democrats that Grant, if elected, will never be President. The same feeling exists to [illegible] him among a portion of that party that they [illegible] toward President Lincoln. They entertain both a hope and a belief that if he [illegible] not be defeated for President he will be [illegible]. We do not charge that this feeling is [illegible] in the "Democratic" [illegible] but we do charge that it [illegible] that organization, and that its own publications furnish proof of the fact.

The County Purse

As the Cop[illegible] organ of this place has in its blundering, falsifying way, been talking for the past week about county finances with an obvious design of misleading the public, we propose to present a few statements in regard to the matter. The following is the tax list of 1867:

School tax	$10,0[illegible] 90
State and military fund	[illegible]
County tax	42,[illegible]
Poor Farm tax	10,013 90
	$90,125 10
A[illegible] nt delinquent	5,796 70

The tax levied is eighteen mills on the dollar. This has been the uniform rate since 1862, with the exception of one year, 1865, when it was half a mill greater. The cost of the new Court House, including furniture, was $92,857 22, all of which has been paid. The indebtedness of the county on the 16th inst was estimated at $17,895 11. On the 30th June 1867, the indebtedness was $21,800 [illegible].

The items of heaviest expense for 1867 were as follows:

Paupers	[illegible]
Prisoners	[illegible]
State cases	[illegible]
Circuit Court	[illegible]
Militia	[illegible]
	$[illegible]

The cost of keeping the poor has been steadily for several years. In 1864 it was but $3,478 08. It is now three times that amount. In 1864 the charges for "prisoners" and "State cases" were, respectively, $1,330 70 and $1,579 60. From the above statement it will be seen that these expenses have also very largely increased. All persons know that there has been a large and steady increase in the criminal business of the county for several years past. The increase of State taxation, arising from causes elsewhere explained in this paper, the erection of the Court House, the additional cost of keeping the poor, the increased amount of criminal business, etc., explain every dollar of increased expenditures in the county. An exhibit of the financial operations of the county, item by item, is published every year, and all who want information on the subject can obtain it without any difficulty whatever.

Mr McCormick and the "Herald"

The subjoined letter needs no introductory remarks:

PORTLAND, Og'n, May 18, 1868.

Editor of the Herald: I hereby pronounce the charge made against Mr McCormick in the Herald of the 17th inst., relative to his having paid the church any money in greenbacks, entirely untrue. Mr. McCormick never was the custodian of any funds belonging to the church, and the church never lost any money through or by any action whatever of Mr. S. J. McCormick. The entire charge is untrue and without foundation.

F. N. BLANCHET,
Archbishop of O. C.

True copy of the original sent to the Herald.
F. N. B.

How fallen must be the cause that circulates an odious slander which compels the head of the Catholic Church in this State to issue over his official signature a complete contradiction of such malicious falsehood. How degraded must that cause be whose strongest weapon is slander indited by malice, to refute which the venerable Archbishop of this Diocese has placed the anathema of his condemnation. Shame upon the party who would compel a venerable dignitary of the Church to come forth from the sanctuary of private life to place the seal of falsehood upon a gross calumny. Mr. McCormick may well feel proud of such testimony as that volunteered by the Archbishop whose friendship is thus attested, and his calumniators may well hang their coppery heads with shame at their unenviable position. Not only the pastor of the Catholic Church in this city, but the entire congregation know that Mr. McCormick has not only not defrauded the Church out of a single cent, but on the contrary that he has contributed both with his services and his purse to the maintenance of the Church from the day of its dedication to the present. The foul charge dies by the virulence of its own poison.

Democratic Financial Management in Grant County.

CANYON CITY, May 12th, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In the Oregonian of April 4th, 1868, a communication signed "Tax Payer" is published, in which the writer charges the Democratic county officers of Grant County with fraud and peculation in the administration of the county affairs. The Copperheads of this county in vindication of their acts, have published an article in the Oregon Herald over the signature of "Blue Mountain," who I understood to be Judge Baldwin or Col. Grey; but it matters not to me whether it is one or both of them. I assert that the charges made in "Tax Payer's" letter are correct, and I stand ready to prove the same. As to M. Goodwin, our present County Clerk, no one has ever charged him with any act other than that becoming an officer and a gentleman.

As to the amount of indebtedness claimed to have been paid in the exhibit referred to by "Tax Payer," the Democratic party did claim to have paid $5,000 and over, and although the charges made by "Tax Payer" have been hurled at them time and again, they have not dared to deny them, but have confessed themselves by coming out and claiming to have paid $600, which I assert and am ready to prove is as false as that first claimed. I will even go further than "Tax Payer" and assert—what I can prove, and that, too, by the Treasurer's books—that a large amount of the revenue of the county, set forth in that exhibit, was not a receipt of the county, nor was it paid into the treasury for a long time after the said exhibit was made. I refer to the Chinese mining taxes. I farther assert, and stand prepared to prove, that the receipts of the county, as shown in said exhibit, were for fifteen months, while the expenditures were for only twelve—and not all of the expense included during that time. And I charge them in this, as I have done publicly, that they have not paid $5,000, $500, nor any other sum whatever, but that on the contrary, they have issued a large amount of scrip in excess of what they have redeemed.

I next charge the sheriff of this county with having collected large amounts of county taxes in coin and that he has paid the same into the county treasury in scrip, and I assert that Judge Baldwin, the Deputy Sheriff of this county, admitted, in a public speech, delivered at John Day City on the evening of April 10th, that they had collected the taxes in coin and that they had paid it in in scrip, and attempted to justify the act under Sec. 36, page 905 of the Code of Oregon. Now, I ask the readers of the OREGONIAN to examine this section in connection with Sec. 6, page 8, of the laws passed in 1865, and then answer me if any person with a grain of common sense, or any respect for honesty, could so far outrage law and sense as to put such a construction on those sections as would justify the collection of the county revenue in that manner.

I further charge that less than one-sixth of the revenue of the county has been paid into the county treasury in coin, of which the law requires to be collected and paid in, in such currency, and that a large amount of the revenue of the county, arising from various other sources, has been collected and has not been paid into the treasury in scrip or coin, either as by law directed or otherwise. And as to the payment for the new Court House, and the grading of which "Blue Mountain" claims that they have paid, I would just take occasion to say, it has been paid for just as a large portion of that class of persons pay—simply to the extent that "I promise." In conclusion upon this point, I would proffer a little friendly advice to "Tax Payer," by suggesting to him that if he desires any legal advice upon section 36 of the code, or any other matter even of the simplest import, not to call upon "Blue Mountain" or any of that class of persons, for the advice of such persons is not only dangerous, but is very dear at any price.

There is one other matter to which I desire to call attention. The facts are and can be proven that the Commissioners of this county did contract with Dr. Tiney to keep the hospital—and that too upon precisely the same terms as stated in "Taxpayer's" letter; and I would further charge that such contract was reduced to writing and only needed to be signed by the parties to perfect it.

But the wise ones who had charge of the county affairs learning that their acts were without authority of law and void for the want of jurisdiction, then, and not till then, refused to perfect such contract; and such refusal was made under a promise to Dr. Tiney that he should receive $150 per month, for which no blame could be attached to the doctor. By this contract which, if it had not been nipped in the bud, a debt of $2 200 per annum would have been saddled on the taxpayers, and that too in the teeth of their own showing, which exhibited that the expenses of the county for the previous year for the poor had been less than $900.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MAY 17.

Latest Information from Washington

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The following statement is predicated on information derived from a highly respectable source. It is generally known that some members of the President's Cabinet have signified their willingness to retire from office and hence the comment in speculation on that subject.

Prominent gentlemen of both parties are in position [illegible] that the trouble between Congress and the President [illegible] in the defeat [illegible] the Administration under the present [illegible] and that the ministry [illegible] England would [illegible] place in their [illegible] with the expressed will of the people, we would have [illegible] long ago, and the [illegible] under the President's plan would have long ago been rejected. It [illegible] by Congressmen of both parties, that he will agree to admit Southern Representatives in any practical way which does not exercise [illegible] on them in the articles of impeachment. It is said that if impeachment had not been pending there is little doubt that a new Cabinet would long since have been designated composed of the great, distinguished and [illegible] men of the country. It should be, therefore, [illegible] if a change of public mode in the conduct of public affairs. If these conjectures should prove [illegible] it will remain for the Senate, in view of the probable defeat of the remaining articles of impeachment on the 26th inst., to accept or reject what is offered and if accepted in good faith it must soon lead to a restoration of the Union, peace and prosperity immediately. It is not true that Johnson has indicated the precise parties, the character of his contemplated Cabinet appointments for then then they shall be men of eminent abilities, such as to challenge the confidence and respect of the entire country.

A report has been in circulation to-day that General Grant has written a letter declaring that he will not accept the nomination for President on the platform of general negro suffrage, but after careful inquiry it cannot be verified. The Republican members say there is no truth whatever in the rumor.

The impeachment managers will commence to-morrow an inquiry as to the alleged improper or corrupt means said to have been used to influence the determination of the Senate upon the articles of impeachment.

There is no truth whatever in the report that Chief Justice Chase called yesterday on President Johnson, to congratulate him on the result of the Senate's vote on the 11th impeachment article.

Three hundred rebels were killed and wounded, and six hundred captured. The staff officers were shot. Col. Crespo, of the State troops, was killed. The General escaped. The revolution is a failure.

To the Public.

FROM this late the undersigned retires from the Life Insurance business. This step is taken in view of the fact that while ... are all on ... financial basis ... this kind proper ... lent and ... the burthens and sorrows of widows and orphans—while I view Life Insurance as a proof of high moral excellence in all communities where practiced—the competition for business is not carried on by agents of some companies in the spirit of fair and honest competition some of them being ignorant of the working of the company they represent, as well as of the business in general, and therefore unable to advance the merits of their company, by honest facts resort to slander and personal abuse of those more successful in procuring business than themselves
The time was when Agents of rival Companies met together in friendship as a Board of Life Underwriters and consulted upon matters of mutual interest and advantage But that day is past on the Pacific Coast! It has given place to a cut throat style of competition, forcing those who have pursued a different course in procuring business to adopt the new mode or retire from the business I choose the latter
Thankful for a generous success in the business, to those contemplating Life Insurance, I heartily recommend them to try the Manhattan of New York It is a Company managed with unrivalled economy and the General Agents Messrs Lou Ieis & Co as well as the Agent for Oregon C P Ferry Esq , are gentlemen worthy of the highest confidence
Trusting those who have been in the habit of slandering and vilifying her may find comfort in nursing their venom, I predict that they will realize the effect of the course they pursue in the general distrust of their companies and agents Such cannot fail to be the effect of the course followed, and such I predict will be the result

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache General Debility Nervousness, Depression of Spirits Constipation Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive and from both sexes
As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS ... effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated In cases of Constitutional Weakness Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age it exercises the electric influence In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last but not least it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

Three Score Years.

A score of years for smiles and singing
For gathering flowers by summer's rest;
For straying wild by brook and meadow
With happy thought and happier dreams.

For tears that left no sting behind them,
And till that wearied heart no bar,
The darkest ... were ...
With hope's bright rainbow quickly spanned.

Then could we rest in peaceful slumber
When day's delight ... was o'er;
In simple faith we glad to ...
We watched each evening's ... sun.

And bright with ... beginning
Our grand ideal lured us on
We doubted not a ... summer in ...
Would find life's victory wrought and won.

A score of years for life's hard struggle,
In which our strength was ... tried
For bitter draughts from sorrow's chalice
Where life's best wine is purified.

And lo! the early mists are scattered
The rosy glow of morn is fled,
The fragrant valleys are forsaken,
A toilsome mountain path we tread.

Yet have we learned life's deeper meaning
From hours of watching, hours of care,
Among these cliffs so bleak and rugged,
We breathe a more celestial air.

And stronger for each hard-won triumph
We meet the tempest of to-day,
And brighter through each disappointment,
Eternal hope illumes our way

Our ... hearts by sorrow stricken,
Reveal new depths and sweeter springs
We knew not love's immortal beauty
Until he showed his heavenward wings.

A score of years—
O ye beloved,
Who from the shadow of three score,
Look on us with your earnest faces,
Open to us the future's store

... your weary striving—
The light your yearning soul pursued?
Has all life's early halo vanished,
And the restless heart found rest?

Ah no! the soul which truly liveth
To higher eternal still aspires;
There is no rest, this side the river,
For ... and high desires.

Amid the gloom of life's young winter
Ye watch the morning star of truth—
Beneath the frosts so chill and hoary
The heart burns with undying youth.

And still the future beckons brightly—
The rainbow spans the path of tears—
Not on the past—forever onward
Looks the true heart of three score years.

Colonel de Trobriand on the War—Interesting Sketches and Reminiscences.

Colonel Regis de Trobriand, a naturalized American citizen, a brave and efficient officer and accomplished gentleman, has written, in his native language, a history of his four years' ... in the army of the Potomac, from the period of its first organization to that of the surrender of General Lee. His work, though affording, in its main points, little or nothing that has not already been given in one or the other of the numerous histories, military or civil, of the rebellion, has yet many novelties in detail, fresh ... anecdotes and matters of personal observation, which are highly interesting and ...

Major Seth Williams, Assistant Adjutant General on the staff of Gen. McClellan, is sketched thus: "* * * An officer who did, perhaps, more than any other to organize the army of the Potomac. Seth Williams was a quiet, modest man, wholly devoted to his duty. An indefatigable worker, no detail seemed too trifling to escape him. He gave an equal attention to general and special matters, and he multiplied himself, so to speak, in order to remedy the defects in the complicated machinery of this vast organization."

Of Gen. Buell he says: "Thoroughly versed in the details of the service, and a strict disciplinarian, he did much to hasten the organization and instruction of the new troops. He slept in his tent, thus setting his officers an example of military readiness and frugality. He was fond of going unexpectedly among the regiments, attended by a single orderly, and no negligence escaped his eye, ... of cleanliness in camp, punctuality of drill, dress of officers, or vigilance of sentinels."

His first impressions of Gen. Wadsworth he ... thus: "I found the General in the ... farm house (at Upon Hill). He was ... fifty-four years of age, but the ardor of his patriotism seemed to renew the vigor of his lost youth, and his moral energy enabled him to endure without flinching the ... between the rugged life of the camp and the luxurious ease he had previously enjoyed. A few broken stools, a door or two torn from its hinges and laid upon rude sets for a table, a bench picked up in the garden—these were all his furniture."

His panegyric of Kearney is remarkably eloquent and touching, though too long for repeating here; but here is his analysis of the character of Gen. Sickles:

"Sickles," says Col. de Trobriand, "is one of the prominent figures of this war, though ... as a man than as a general officer, and is in many respects a genuine American type. He is endowed in a remarkable degree with the facility of resources which has made ... as a people able to do everything. Though still young, he has dabbled ... politics, diplomacy, legislation and soldiering. His characteristics are an active brain, an ardent temperament, a quick and supple intelligence, and a stubborn ... by nature, he enlists in the service of his ambition a keen perception, a practical judgment, and a profound knowledge of the law of expedients. Obstacles do not discourage him, although he will ... impossibility; as he has always a number of strings to his bow, when one breaks he will simply replace it by another."

Col. de Trobriand's description of the battles in which ... part are ... with vigor and detail ... which ... They bear, more ... accuracy and perfect ... But the ... description ... course during ... we will not risk ... stating the ... officer. ... ral ... favor ... from May ... to Antietam. When he was ... from his command by General Burnside, Colonel de Trobriand ... his book in these words: "Thus ... from the scene the General who, ... had played the most important part in the drama of the war. His misfortune, and that of his country was his sudden elevation to a post for which he had not the requisite ability. ... Had he remained in a position suited to his military abilities, such, for example, as the ... of the defences at Washington, it is probable that he would have acquitted himself with honor. Being essentially an engineer officer, he would have then found the best chance for the employment of his speciality. But ... of a second-rate ... performed, at Laurel Hill ... and sudden fortune upon him ... and, as it were, crushed him."—N. Y. Post.

Two Royal Families.—The London Saturday Review has an article, from which we make rather an amusing extract:

There are two families in Europe which, if ... from the ... are constantly reappearing, which are ready to play all parts, and which ... in the ... with which they take their place in the world, are not dissimilar ... with which they raise all opportunities offered to them. There is always a Coburg or a Bourbon ready for whatever happens to be offered. The Coburgs principally shine in marriage, and wisely keep a Protestant branch, a Catholic branch and possibly a Greek branch, according to the occasion that may arise and the faith of the heiress they espouse. When they are ... they are most excellent people in their high station—just, temperate, honest, eminently respectable, and thoroughly penetrated with modern ideas. The late King of the Belgians was perhaps the only continental sovereign who ever showed consistently that he understood the position of a constitutional monarch. The Bourbons are not perhaps equal to the Coburgs, or, at any rate, they are not so suited to the times in which they now find themselves. But they are even in their comparatively fallen state, a family of great energy, great gifts and a sort of ... for always turning up. They differ, however, from the Coburgs in this respect that they have a fixed type in the ... of character, ... and opinions. They are not without a versatility which, in its way, is really remarkable.

When the good man dies, the tears he in life prevented from flowing are shed.

A new gunpowder, called the "Schultze powder," lately invented by a German artillery officer of that name, is being at present tested by the French War Department, and those of several other European nations. It is entirely white and projects shot with equal force by the use of but half the quantity of the present powder. It has the further advantage of neither leaving a residue of burnt powder in the gun, nor even soiling it. It makes but little smoke and rebounds very slightly. It also heats the gun less than common powder. If burnt on white paper it leaves no noticeable trace.

Lola Montez.—The New York correspondent of the Alta gives the following reminiscences of Lola Montez.

You have already received explanation that the dead King of Bavaria is not the young ruler, but the old ex King, who made himself conspicuous as the friend of Lola Montez. Will you excuse me if I gossip a little about Lola, and tell you a few particulars I received three or four years ago from the physician who attended her in her last illness and saw her buried. Lola was sick unto death, she lived in a little garret in Brooklyn, where she had scanty furniture and none of the luxuries of life. My friend, the doctor, then a young man just commencing practice, was called to see her, and was frankly told that she had but little money and would hardly be able to pay him. Trusting to fortune and the fame he might acquire from the matter, he accepted the situation and regularly visited his patient. One day a lawyer called upon him and said Lola was the owner of certain property in Munich, for which he (the lawyer) was authorized to pay $200,000. "She is at full liberty to sell it," said the man; "it was given her by the King, and she has a perfect title, but if she does not dispose of it the property will revert to the Government at her death. Here are two papers, if she will sign both of them in the presence of two credible witnesses we will pay two hundred thousand dollars at once."

The doctor told me that he took the papers to Lola and explained the state of affairs. "I did not," said he, "urge her to sign them, though I was very anxious she should do so. I told her she could place herself above want, and that nobody in the world had a better title to the property than herself. You know she professed to have repented of her misdeeds and changed to a Christian. On account of this she was in some doubt as to the propriety of receiving money from her Bavarian career. She took the papers and said she would think the matter over and answer me in a few days. Three or four days afterward, just as I was about to leave at the end of one of my visits, she called me back and said,

"I have thought that matter over and will sign the papers."

I called up a gentleman who lived in the house to join me in witnessing the signature. We arranged a table and gave her the pen, which she took without hesitation and began to write.

She signed one paper, writing with a clear hand, and then took the other. When the signature was about half made, she suddenly dashed the pen to the floor, with the exclamation:

"It is the price of prostitution; I will never touch it."

This was the end of the matter. Neither of us ever spoke of the subject again, and she died without completing the signature. She was buried in Greenwood, where a simple slab, bearing the name of Eliza Gilbert, marks her grave. Her mother came to see her during her illness, stayed about three weeks and then returned to England. Her visit was as little as possible like a mother's, and its only object was to obtain titles to some property that the daughter was supposed to possess. On asserting that the latter was living in a state bordering on destitution, the mother openly expressed her regret at troubling herself to visit America."

A youth named Elkin hanged himself at Liverpool because his father had "blowed him up." The paternal parent on being asked why, on discovering his son hanging in his bed-room, he did not send for a doctor immediately, affectionately replied that he "had his cows to attend to."

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, ... Skin Diseases, ... sores, standing and Ulcerated Legs, successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands fall victims, both male and female, at the ... wholly ... out a natural instinct ... and ... tendencies to indulgence, ... absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyments of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death relieves them. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible ... destroying maladies, see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure them in ... ascertain ... without mercury or any poisonous drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, and to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, puffing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and their places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions—the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice ... depraved ... of indulgence is practiced by the youth of ... to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, he should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written iron-clad contract binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. For Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are Cosmetic shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he ... pledges to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

MANUFACTURERS OF

SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC

TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The cheapest, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been proven ... by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly at his saw mill and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature:

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY, Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel I have to say that I have used one over shot and three Leffel wheels 10, 13 and 15 inch ... When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 15 inch Leffel wheel, though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 feet of water per minute more than the 13 inch Leffell. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel, but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water, per minute. After some months, I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance, while running the circular saw in a log which required 15 inches, I edited the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one eighth to one fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels I am satisfied that your wheel with gate one-third open ... that ... I was as the Leffell with gates one-third open. At half gate, your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel by from ... to ... per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being east at the first and absent from the State, at the second trial.

INSTITUTE.

, CONSULTATIONS, IN ALL CASES, FREE.

, CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

, IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of the Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in want of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and habits give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or infected to the invariable success that has marked the career of his Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this section to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.
